VENTURA COUNTY, CA (December 22, 2017) #Odysseo - Cavalia Odysseo makes it its mission to give back and make a mark in the community in every city it tours. On its first run in Ventura County, the show is spreading the holiday cheers by reaching out to those in need of many non-profits organizations in Ventura County and Santa Barbara County.

Through the American Red Cross, Ventura County Sheriff's Office and the City of Camarillo, Cavalía Odysseo invited families who lost their homes due to the Thomas Fire in Ventura County and Santa Barbara County. Many first responders including firefighters, members of law enforcement and volunteers who showed tremendous bravery in the past few weeks were treated to the special 55-minute holiday performance on Thursday, December 21.

Additionally, Cavalía Odysseo invited deserving kids and families from Casa Pacifica Centers for Children & Families, from Safe Harbor Kids and from Boys and Girls Clubs in Camarillo, Conejo, Oxnard, Moorpark, Ventura, Simi Valley and Santa Clara Valley.

In total, more than 1500 deserving Southern Californians were in attendance. Before the show, the special guests met with riders, acrobats and aerialists and took pictures with them. The invitees received gift bags and snacks before the show.

Due to the ongoing demand in Southern California, Cavalía Odysseo extends its stay yet again in Camarillo with matinee and evening performances now scheduled through January 28. The largest touring production on earth features 65 horses and 50 artists, marrying the equestrian arts, stage arts and high-tech theatrical effects at never-before-seen levels.
